

Vincenzo Lamberti

He graduated in Computer Science from the University of Salerno in 2003. His expertise includes software engineering, Agile Scrum methodology, SOA architectures, Cloud and Web 2.0, as well as Learning & Knowledge and Collaboration & Workflow management systems.

His steady engagement in research projects and design and management of medium to large scale applications, has allowed him to gain extensive experience in Team Coordination and Problem Solving.